

2018 Executive Council Candidate

Sally Townsend

A long-term Tokyo resident, Sally is in charge of Business Development for Japan at global luxury lifestyle company, Sarment Group. Prior to her current role, Sally worked for an importer of premium Australian and New Zealand wine in Tokyo, which was the catalyst for her becoming an active member of the Food, Agriculture and Hospitality Committee. Sally also co-chairs the Sports for Business Committee and has been an Executive Council member for two years.

A graduate of Nihon University, Sally is also President of the Australia Society Tokyo, a volunteer organisation that runs social events for Australians in Tokyo while raising money for charities here in Japan.
