

Andrew Gauci

Andrew Gauci assumed his position as the Head of the Lendlease business in Japan in 2007. The business has seen tremendous growth in his tenure and now employs over 300 professionals in Project Management, Construction, Development and Investment.

A graduate of RMIT University in Melbourne who holds a BSc in Construction Management, Gauci has also facilitated major infrastructure projects in Hong Kong at Japanese construction firms.

A leader in innovation, Gauci has also facilitated the development of market leading products to the Japanese telecoms industry.

