

Gerard Adams

Gerard has spent the past 15 years working with Japanese companies investing in Australia, New Zealand and beyond. He started his career as a corporate lawyer in Australia and Japan, and since 2009 has been based in Tokyo in a senior strategy role with Kirin.

Gerard joined the Executive Council in 2015, helping found the SME Support Program, and is currently serving as Operations Director. He is also a co-leader of the Japan Australia Business Co-operation Committee Future Leaders Program. Gerard is married, with two daughters, and enjoys sport, music and reading.

