

Kazuya Kurano

Kazuya Kurano joined National Australia Bank in July 2016 as the General Manager, Japan.

Kazuya joins NAB from Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited (ANZ) where he was the Head of the Financial Institutions Group (FIG) in Japan for the past six years since February 2010. Prior to that role, Kazuya was with Credit Suisse, Japan as the Head of FIG Japan for six and half years and with Sanwa Bank as several senior roles including Global Head of Project Finance and the Head of Capital Market at New York branch.

Kazuya brings an excellent track record of strong results and leadership during a 33 year career in Japan's banking industry. He has deep relationships with Corporate and FIG clients in Japan.

Kazuya holds an MBA from New York University's Stern School of Business and a law degree from Kyoto University.

